Colleen,
I'm really glad I had you in calculus this year. You're really nice. You've got a super personality. I can't wait to cheer you next year when we'll be BIG SENIORS!! We'll have to make next year the best since we're our last. Well I'm sure I'll see you sometime, this summer whether it's at practice or at some party.
Take care and have a terrific summer.
Love, always,

lleen,
at can I say that I haven't already. Your a beautiful rl with a great personality. I have never met yone as nice and sweet and considerate as u. If I failed in anything during my highhool years it was not tring harder to take u out. Sure I'm going to miss alot of people xt year but no one as much as you. Your great friend and I feel privilged to have you s a friend.

For some, Littleton High was simply a school, but for the majority, it was much more than that. It was a place where we made friends, faced uncertainties, and experienced a few embarrassing moments, revised old ideas, and made new ones. We grew, and our personalities matured.

We will remember the frustrations of trying to get through the crowded halls at that intersection near the library.

We will remember cramming the night before finals.

We will remember the warm feeling from a friendly smile and hello from a friend.

We will remember the problems we've tackled, the frustrations we've conquered, and the friends we've made, and, most importantly, "The Best of Times."

Colleen,
I didn't see you much this year except in business law. Wasn't that class a blow off. Hopefully I'll see you some this summer and next year. Take care and have a wild summer.

Colleen - I'm really glad I met you this year! Your really sweet. I'll never forget all those baseball games we've been to, me, Allison, and there: that what a joke! However fun but was pretty fun. Too bad we didn't see each other as much as we used to but I'll always remember our "talks" & "Bat" I really was sorry to hear about your class was a total bore. I'll look forward to you always

When the final bell at 2:30 rings, it signals the end of another school day. Students hurry to their lockers, gather their books, and race outside the building. For the first time, the school seems calm. But slowly students begin to emerge. A cadence of 1,2,3,4—5,6,7,8 is heard echoing through the halls; then the hammering from someone working on sets backstage. Outside, the fields are dotted with athletes practicing for a game.

Few students ended their school day at 2:30. Activities such as pep groups, choirs, athletics, clubs, and student counsel demanded countless hours of work after school. Activities provided us with a break from a monotonous school routine and also a chance to display our talents in front of crowds.

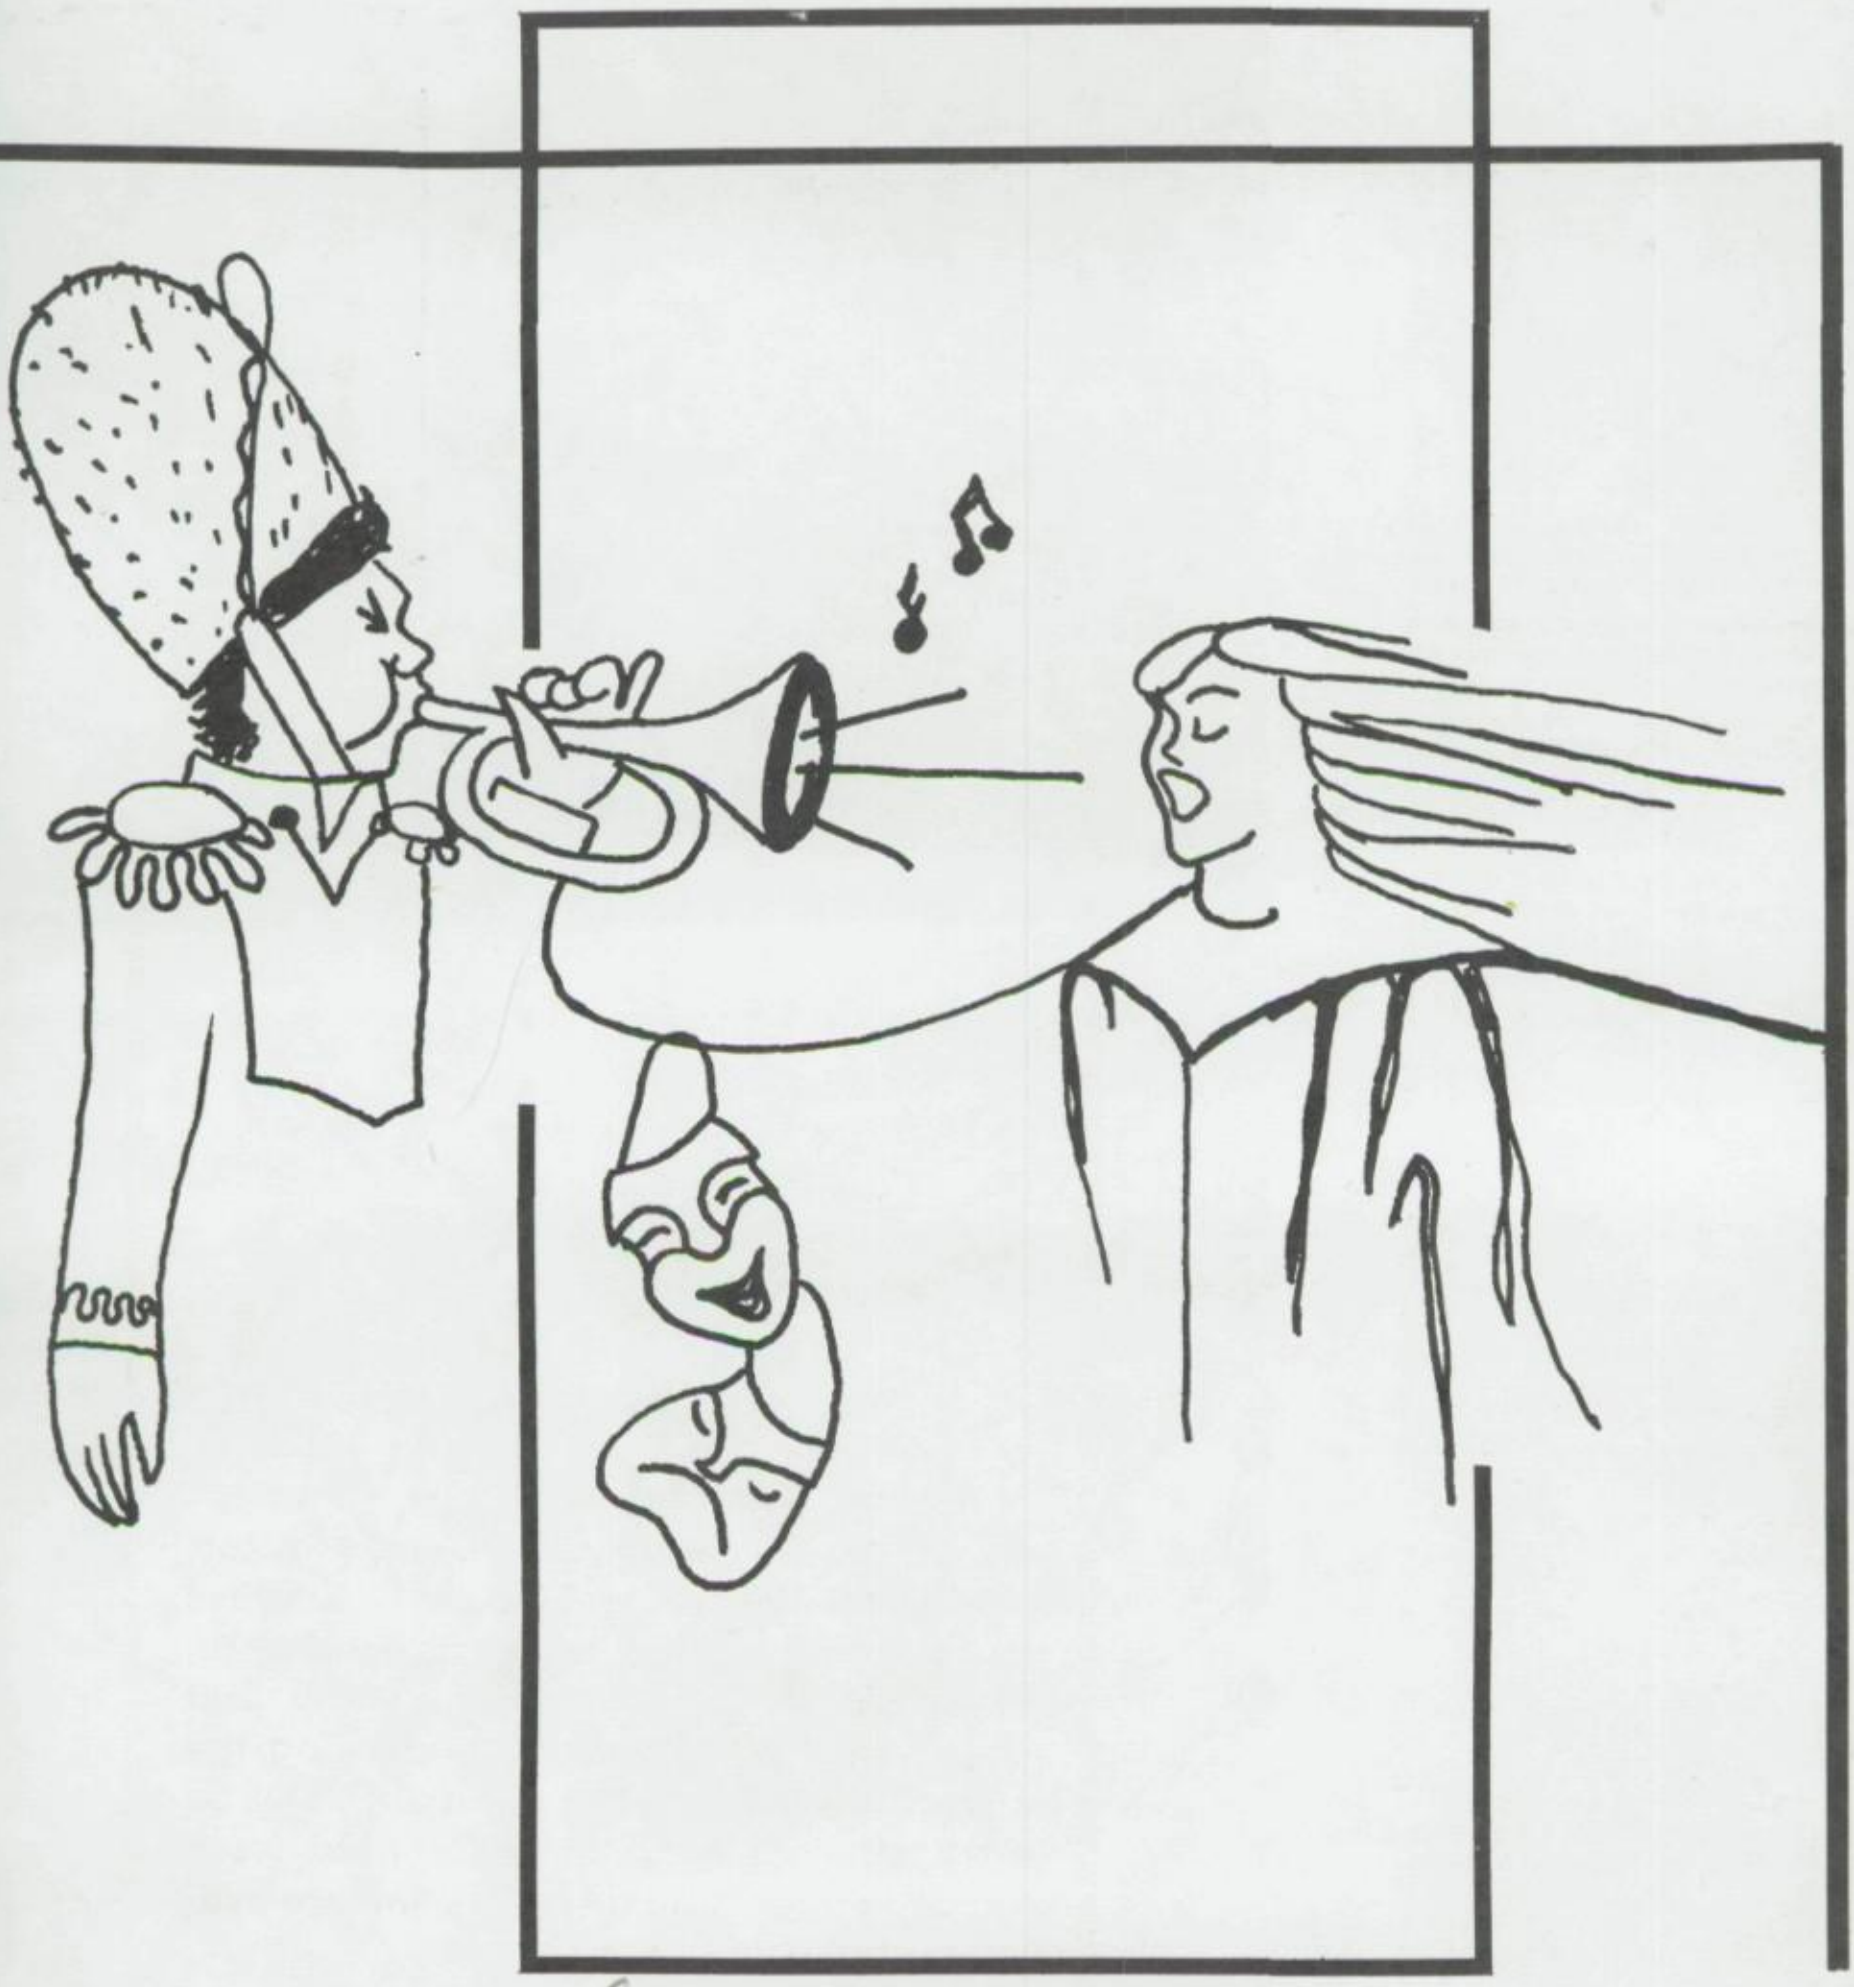
From singers and musicians, to actors and actresses, talented students entertained us with plays and concerts. Endless hours before school, after school and on weekends were devoted to making that song sound just right, or to creating the perfect atmosphere for a play. Finally on performance night, all of the hard work and dedication paid off by the sincere ovation from the audience.



Colleen,
Well its just been a rowdy year! And us Juniors made it that way with a little help from the seniors. Ha! Oh Well, I hope to get to know ya better, you seem like a crazy fun person to be around with. You have a super safari summer. And see ya at some wild parties

The 1981-82 school year brought many victories as well as defeats. The determination to keep fighting for victory plus true sportsmanship best describes Littleton High's athletes. They accept losses in the same spirit as they accept victories and they are to be commended for their zeal, enthusiasm, and amiability at every game whether winning or losing. The victories they will always cherish; the defeats they will pass on for their successors to avenge. They leave good sportsmanship and honest and earnest effort.

I can't even believe this year is just about over! It's whizzed! I'm so glad I've become friends with you this semester! I've had the best times just this last quarter doing things with you and Kath and everyone! We're still going to have to go to Thirsties sometime! I'm sure Drom is going to be one of those nights that none of will be able to forget! Colleen - you're such a fantastic person! I know I can confide in you without worrying about the whole school finding out - You have a great head on your shoulders and I really admire that. This summer we'll have to get together a lot to do some outrageous partying! (Lets stay away from that one dirt hill though!) Thanx so much for everything Coke!

Love always,
Jenny

Littleton retains swim titl

By CLAY LATIMER
Special to the News

AIR FORCE ACADEMY — Even during the early days of the season, Maurice Ervin knew he would have to approach the Colorado Boys High School Swimming and Diving Championships in a different way.

Even before his team's first meet, the Littleton coach realized that he would have to rely on team depth rather than first-place finishes to capture yet another state title.

As it turned out, Littleton did just that Saturday night at the Air Force Academy, relying on its depth to win the 1982 championship, its fifth title in seven years. It was also the Lions' fourth straight title.

Although the Lions failed to win an individual event, they finished first in both the 200-yard medley relay and the 400-yard freestyle relay to finish with 143 points, outdistancing longtime nemesis Arapahoe, which scored 100 points. Rounding out the field were Grand Junction (80½), Arvada (71), and Fort Collins (68).

Taking control from the opening moments, Littleton won the meet's first event, the 200-yard medley relay, clocking a 1:40.48 time. And in a dramatic finale, the Lions captured the 400-yard freestyle relay in 3:17.90.

In between, Grant Seavall picked up a third in the 50-yard freestyle and a fourth-place finish in the 100-yard freestyle. Rick Patten, meanwhile, placed third in the 200-yard individual medley and Jud Cary finished fourth in the 100-yard butterfly.

For Ervin, then, Saturday night was a pleasant repeat of years past.

"We started off well, and we finished well," said the Lion coach of his young team, which is dominated by underclassmen. "We talked from day one about it being a team effort. We knew that was necessary. This is probably the most depth we've ever had overall, the best team probably from top to bottom."

"It was more of a challenge this year," added Cary, who swam on both relay teams. Cary is one of the few seniors on the Littleton team.

"I think this is my favorite championship. It was one of the hardest meets to win, but we started off well and we finished well."

Arapahoe was led by Jeff Langas, who finished first in the 100-yard backstroke (53.56) and second in the individ ley (53.56).

Seavall was instrumental in Littleton's medley-r tory. All year the Lions had lost to Arapahoe in that Seavall, a member of last year's state-record setting relay team, was determined to reverse that.

"We haven't beat them all year," said the Lions so who overcame a significant Arapahoe lead in the fi edge the Warriors. "I was sweating it a little. This our best relay win of the year. It's an important eve the snowball rolling.

"We don't have any superstars on this team. W Cherry Creek in a dual meet, and it seemed the te together. We tried to work harder."

Leading Grand Junction was Bruce Ward, who de 50-yard freestyle title with a 21.04 time, which was All-American honors.

It was also good for his nerves.

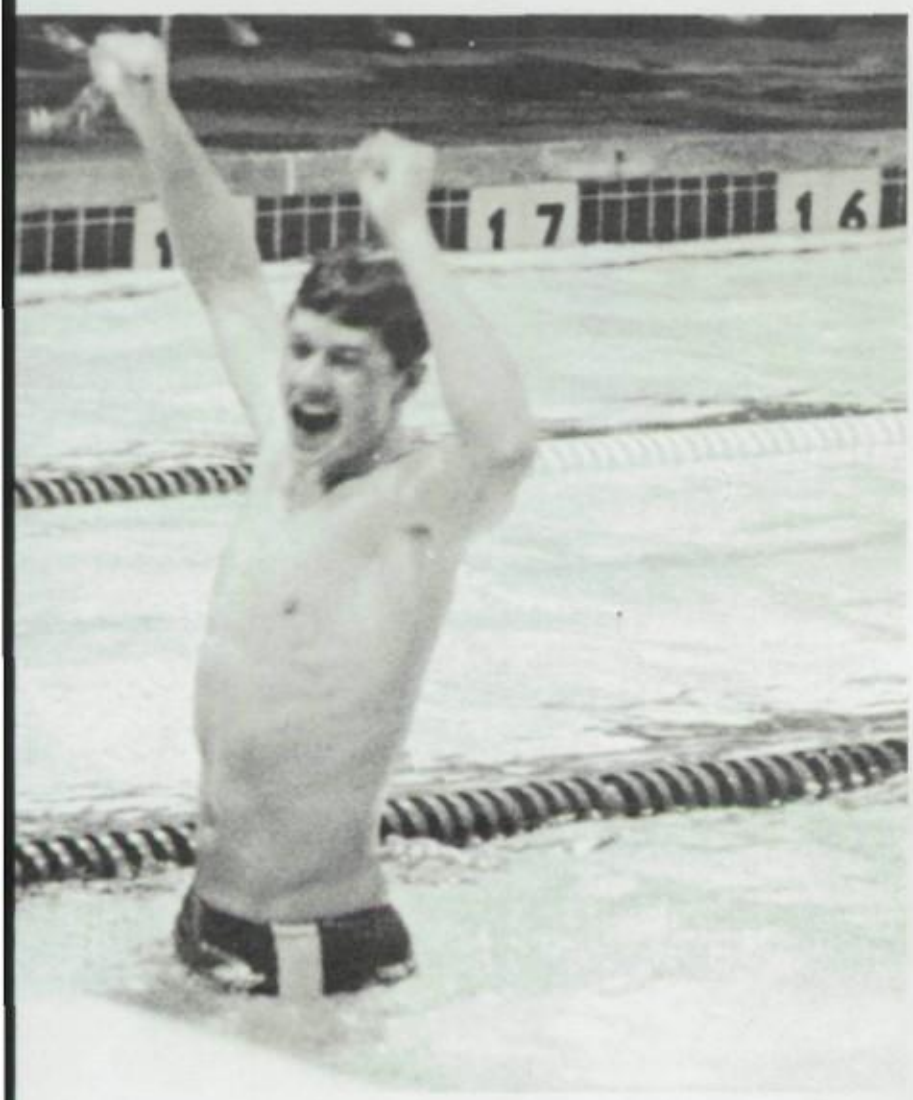
"I think there's a lot more pressure being a champion," said the Grand Junction senior. "I w apart. I was shaking at the end of the year. Everyo up to you and says you have to repeat. It gets scary be nice if people just said 'Do your best'."

Ward also finished second in the 100-yard freesty

Smoky Hill's Don Wilhelm was also a winner, def diving title with 474.25 points.

"HOW SWEET IT IS"

e State meet Grant Seavall, placed 3rd in the 50 Free, 4th in the Free and was a member of the 1st place 200 medley relay team. is a great accomplishment for his sophomore year in swimming.



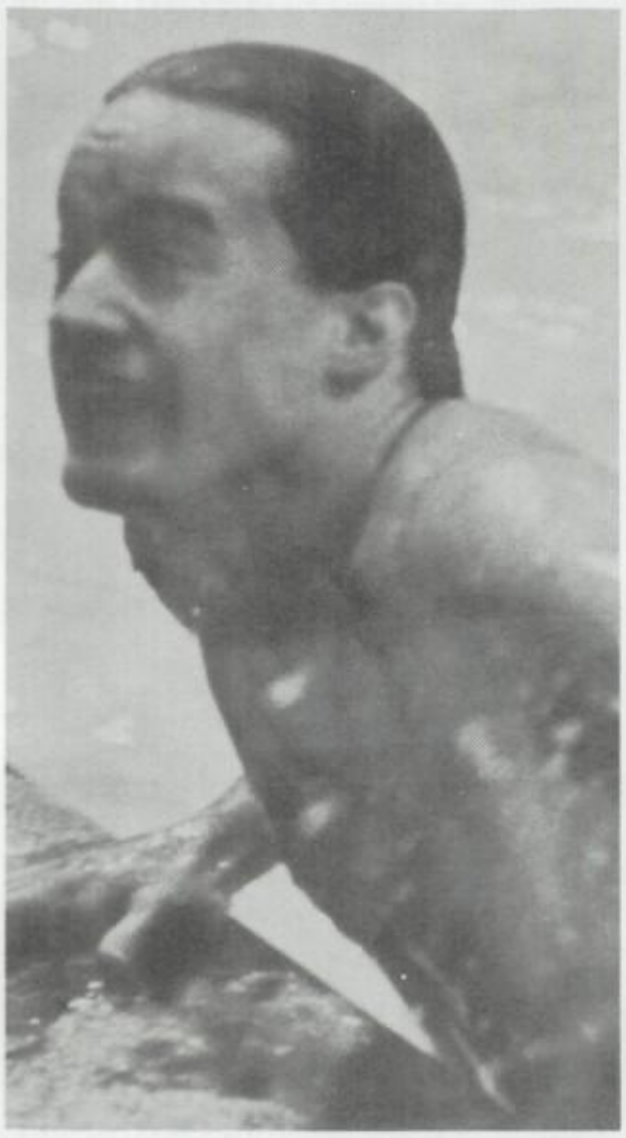
"Flying Fish"

Swimmers Rick Patten, Marty Acosta and Mark Trevathan warm-up before a meet. Rick Patten placed 3rd at the State meet in the 200 IM with a time of 2:01.45.

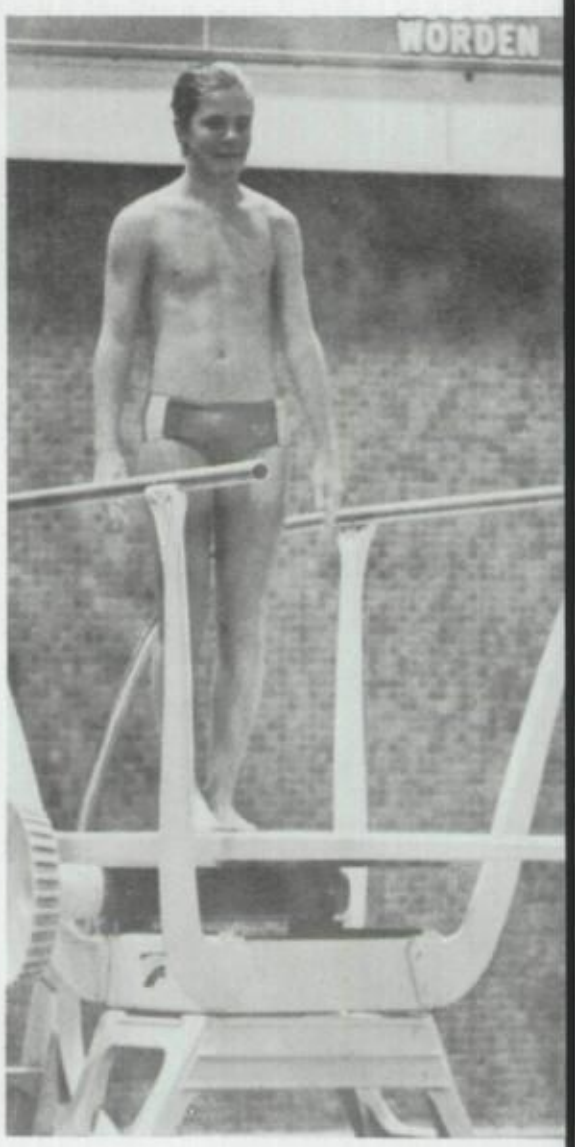
Throughout the season Coach "Stringy" Ervin prepared the Lion Fish for the State meet with determination and drive. Fortunately this paid off and the Lion's captured their 4th State Championship.

Senior Jud Cary prepares for the start of the race hoping to beat his record in the 100 yard Butterfly.

At a home meet against Gateway, Junior Rick Patten, rapidly swims the Butterfly hoping to b the team to a victory.



Proving the talent of the LHS Swim team, Senior, Will Browne looks to other team members after winning the 100 yard Freestyle in a meet against Hinkley. The Lion "Fish" won 123 to 46.



Junior, Derek Eberhardt has qualified diving at State the last two years. A Freshman, Derek was a member of the diving team while attending Goddard Ju High.

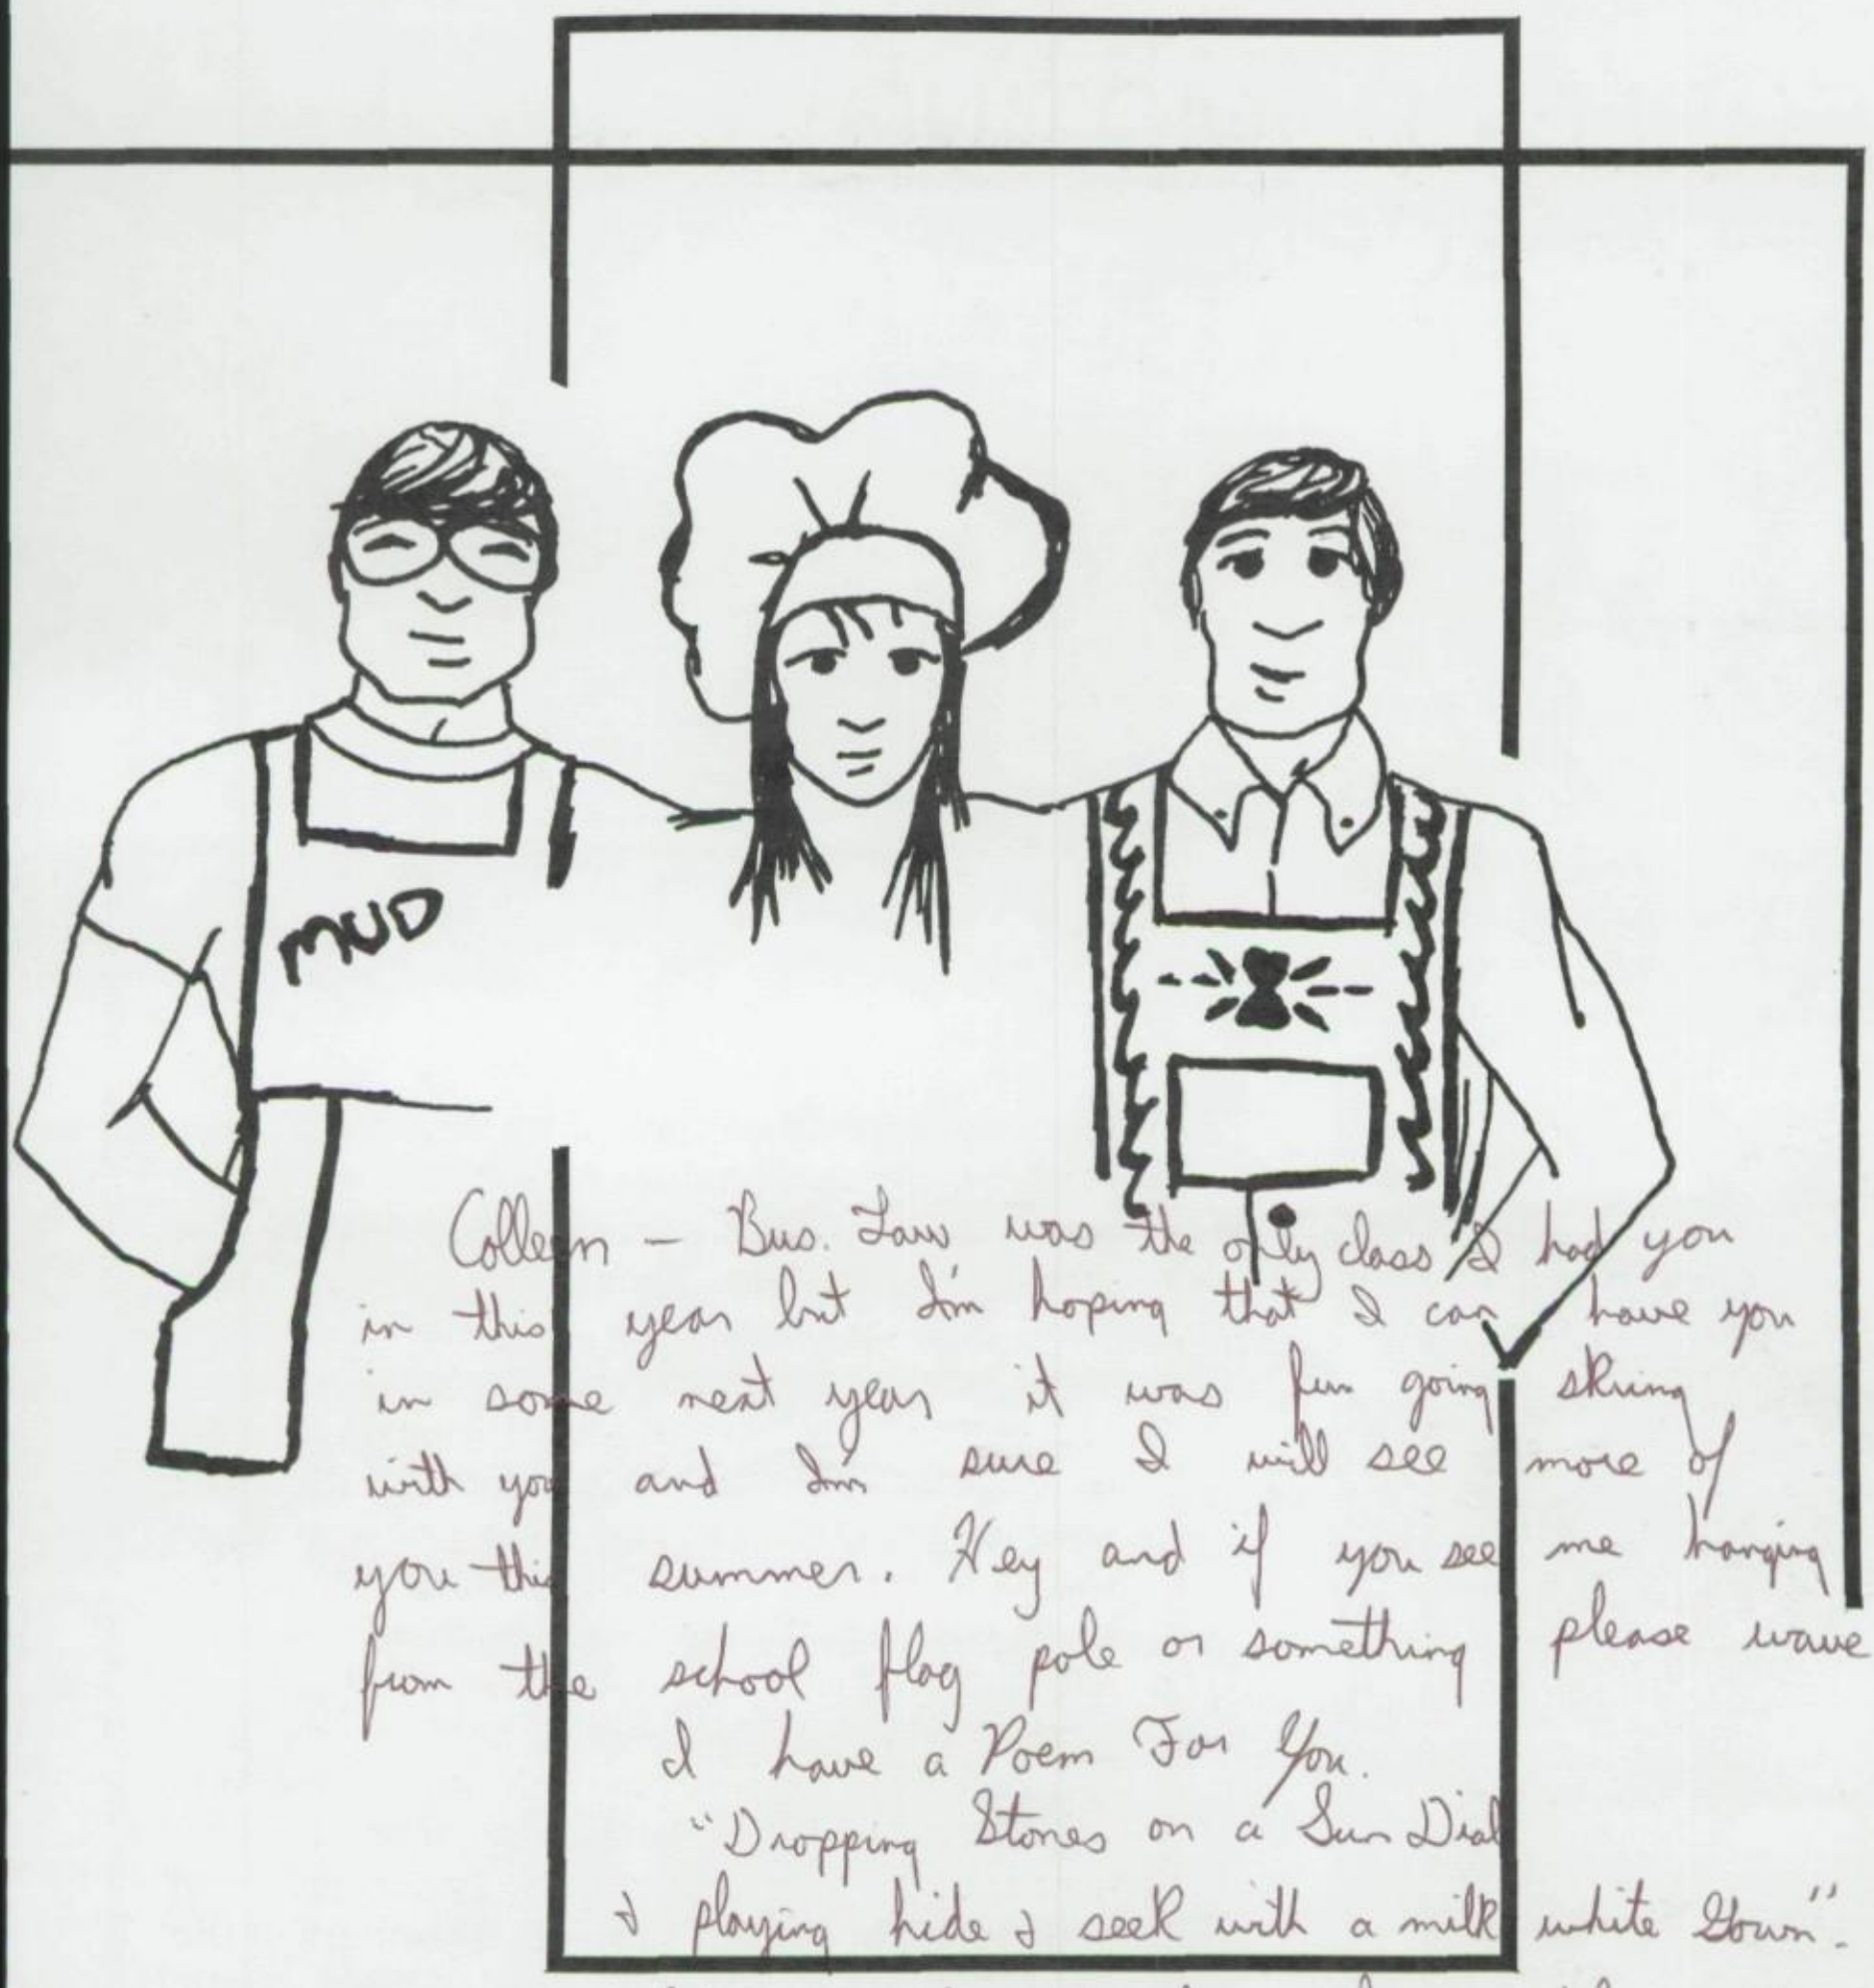
Stay Cute!!

Throughout the 1981-1982 school year, students took the opportunity to join a variety of clubs. Some clubs, such as FBLA and DECA focused on giving students a look into the world of business. These two groups used their business skills to compete in district, state, and national competitions. Gymnastics and Judo Clubs gave students the opportunity to express themselves physically. Students who joined the Mountain Club got a taste of the high country while hiking, snow skiing, and back packing. Diners Club provided students with the task of doing what they do best—EATING!! This unique club, dressed to kill, met once a month to pork-out on a variety of dishes. The PPP organization gave students a chance to help their peers by tutoring and counseling in certain subjects. Members of the Clay Club got a chance to display their artistic abilities through their hands by forming clay pottery and other sculptures. The German Club, known for its outstanding parade floats, was again in full force this year with their Homecoming Float placing 3rd. Students in this club also attended their annual dinner at the Heidelberg and enjoyed Halloween and Christmas parties.



Colleen – Bus. Law was the only class I had you in this year but I'm hoping that I can have you in some next year it was fun going skiing with you and I'm sure I will see more of you this summer. Hey and if you see me hanging from the school flag pole or something please wave I have a Poem For You.

RULES

Long after we leave the halls of LHS, bits and pieces of our high school lives will remain in our minds. Names and faces will fade and events will only be flashes of memory. We then will pull out a dusty old book, the 1982 Corlionis, and flip through its pages. Reminiscing, on the things only we were able to get away with, we will turn to the Classes Section, picking out faces of old friends. There is one face that we must find—our own. We spot it, thinking how young we looked then. We realize this yearbook is very much a part of our lives.

LHS SENIOR

Dear Seniors,

I can't believe we're almost done with high school! It seems like only yesterday we were freshmen, and now we're graduating and moving on to bigger and better things. To me, high school was a great experience, and I hope you have a great summer before college. Call me if you want to talk about what it was like for you, or if you have any questions about college. I'll be happy to help you in any way I can. Have a great summer, and I'll see you next year!

Love,
Dawn

to pester (that is, when we aren't being busy-bodies at work(?) - Workaholics (?) start getting pheasant for Spain - where going to have a great time! I can't wait!

Yipeee! Don't forget to call - (you do, I'll see you anyways!

Stay beautiful ☺

it won't be hard for you

I promise

See ya this summer I'll always

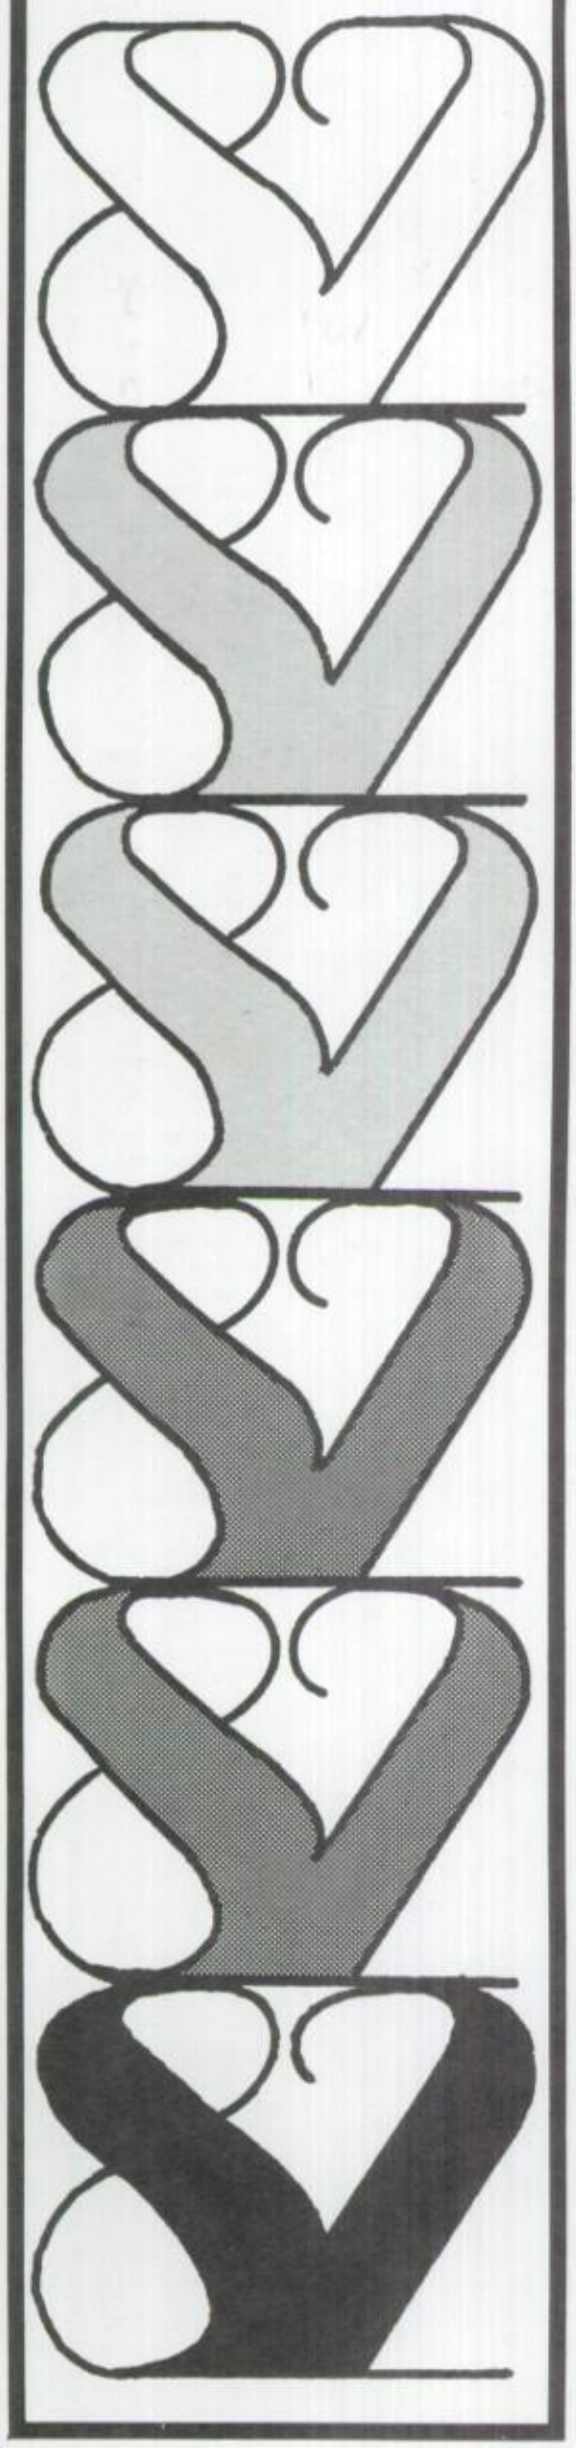
BIG SHOT



Many of us at LHS simply see the faculty as people who make us study and work hard. Yet, as well as being friends, they also act as role models. The faculty, composed of 4 administrators, 5 counselors, 1 psychologist, 75 teachers, along with about 30 educational support personnel, have a direct influence on our lives. They help form the path a student might take, and help us in reaching those goals that seem so distant. We can rely on teachers to listen to our problems, whether academic or personal, knowing that it will be kept confidential. Fourteen departments, offering over 250 courses, including honors, advanced placement, basic skills, vocational, and independent studies are headed by our faculty. The members also participate in various activities, such as sponsoring spirit groups, clubs, and coaching.

yet! But next year we're going to rage! Our last year of High school, it's kinda hard to believe!! But it will be the best senior year, I'm excited. :) I'm glad that we've gotten to know each other better through the years. I hope we can become closer yet and party-hard together! You're a very dear and sweet person, Please don't change, except we have one more year is gonna be sad, but awesome! Stay sweet party lots and lots Cherry Creek and Chatfield! RAGE!!!!

for the good. I'm glad together, because leaving the partying will be and we'll have to this summer.

Luv ya,
Becky

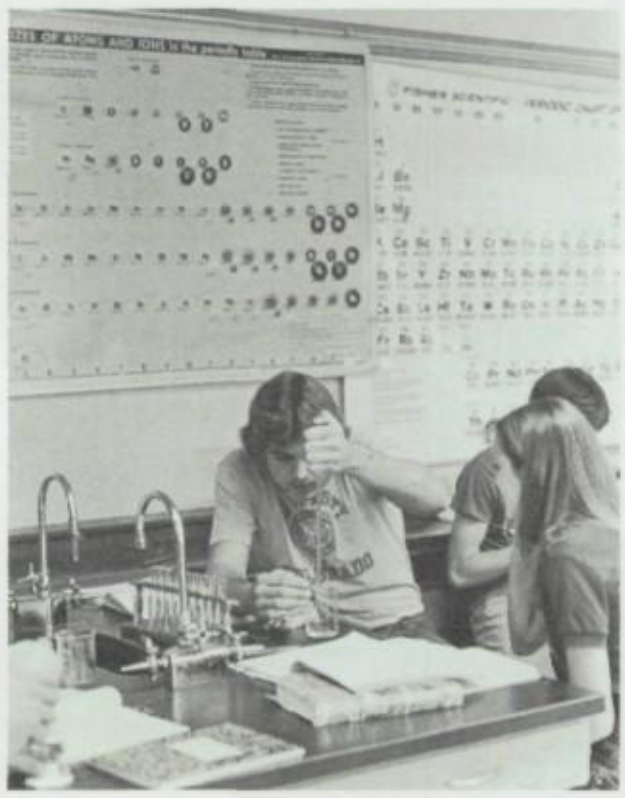
THE BARE ESSENTIALS

Colleen,
You're really a good-looking girl and a great person to know. Thanks for your help at the "contest." Have a great summer, Hope to see you sometimes.
← MARK McGORKLE

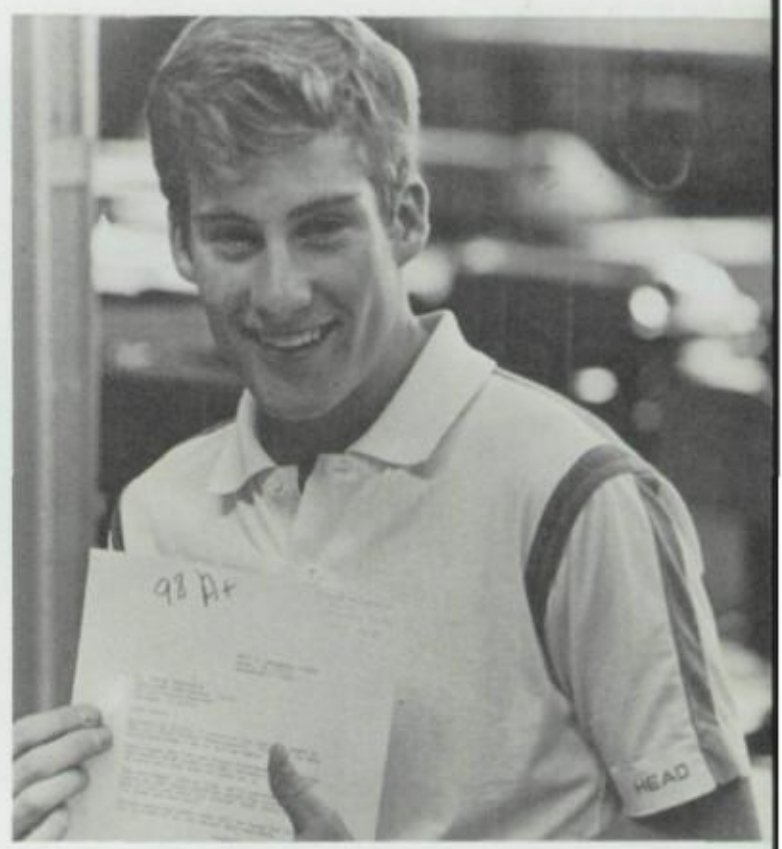
Exact measurements are essential in practical chemistry, as demonstrated by Peter Murrish and Linda Grohe.



Stacy Baer finds typing I the first key to success in her newspaper class.

ug Fisher and Ruth Colaiannia get a three ensional view of atomic structure in Miss arski's 1st hour chemistry.

Mrs. Cubin shows Mary Konkle how to set up a carbon copy.



Dave McDonald gives thumbs up to an A+ on a nearly perfectly typed paper.

LEARNING TAKES MANY FORMS

Mark Noonan begins to create.

After using the weights, Jon Fujino takes time out to catch his breath.

Toning up his muscles on the clean senior Mark Johnson.

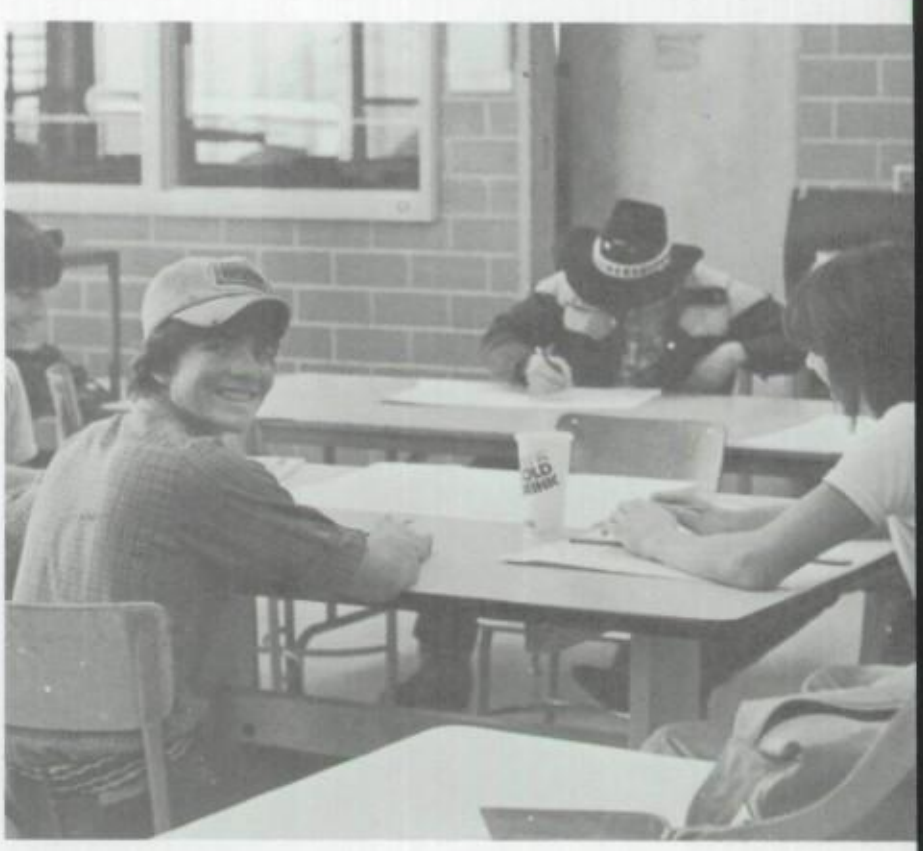
This is the daily scene in the weight room as Mr. Steve Foster makes them run through their routine.



Designing cereal boxes and record album covers is what commer design is all about, as shown here with Danny Spaulding, Garh Becker, Pat Tierny and Tim Woolery

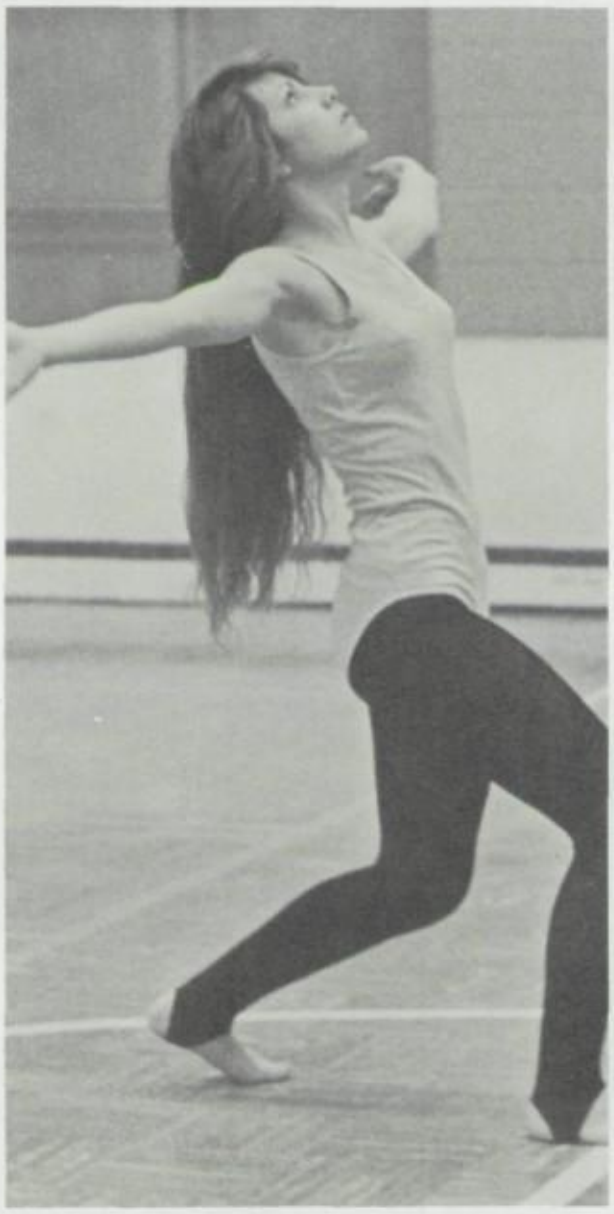
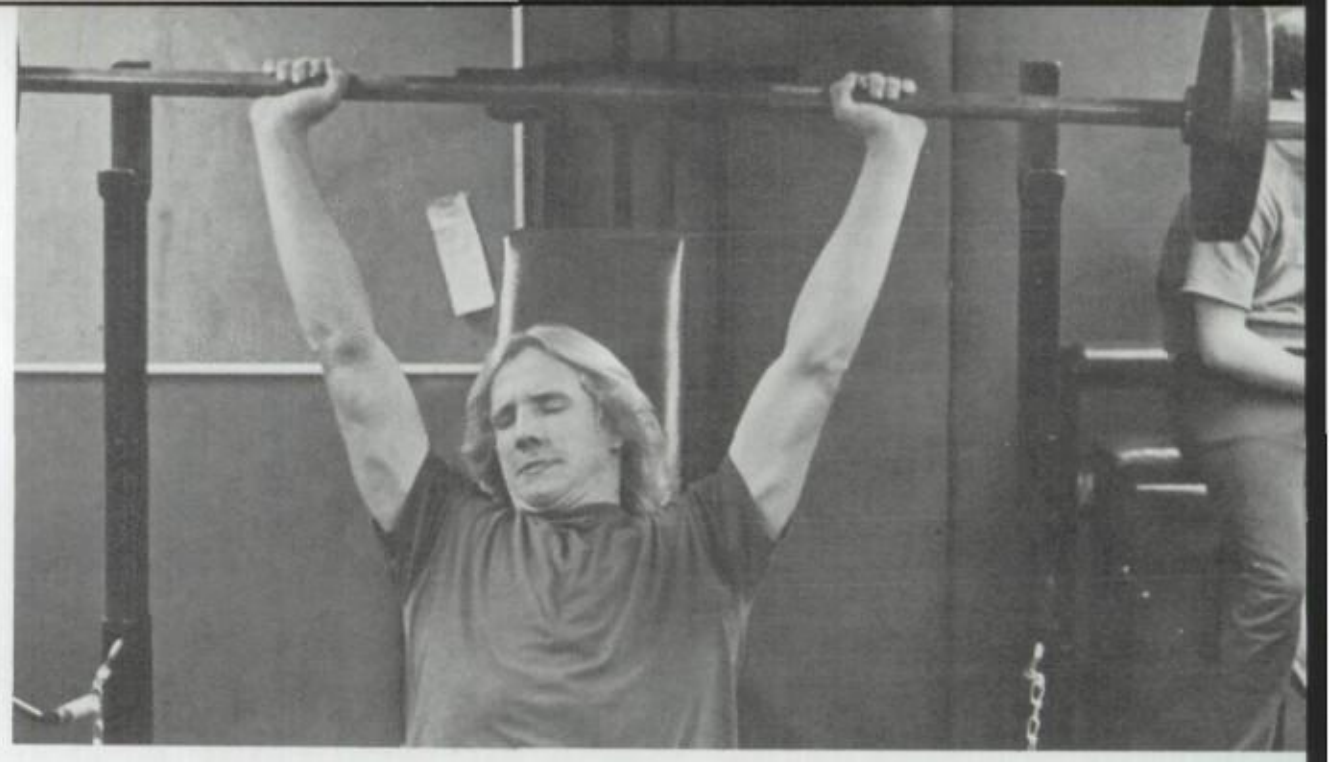
Robin Stanton shows the form that she uses in her routine for her contemporary modern dance class.



The beginning of a gourmet meal?

nny Spaulding trains on the bench press during a vigorous work out he weight room.

To prevent injuries, students take time to loosen their muscles.



The incline bench press requires tremendous strength as displayed here by Jim Debus.

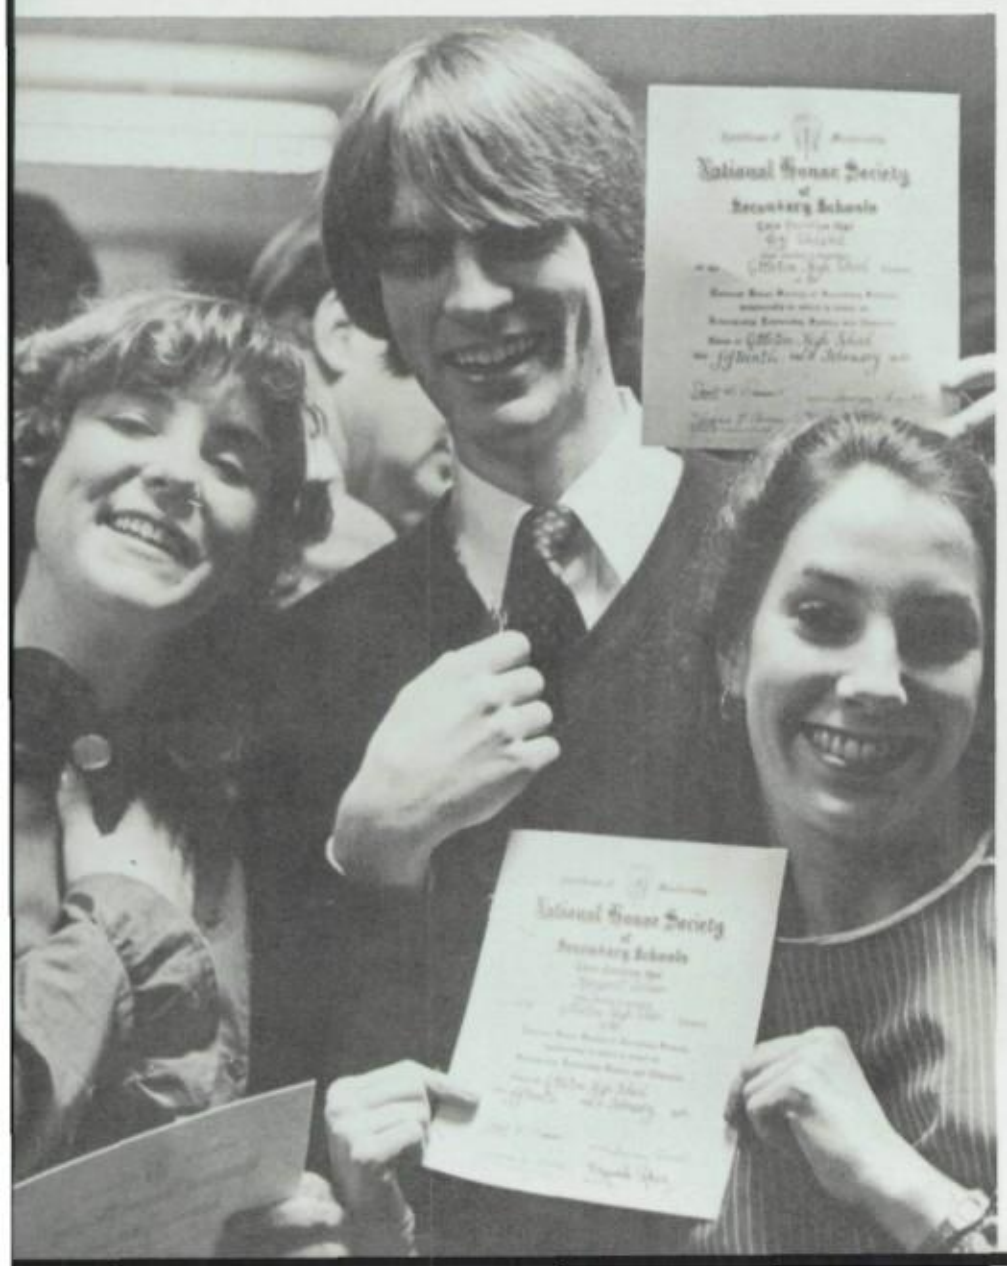
Theresa Morris operates the leg extensions machine during her weight training class.

Mrs. Smith demonstrates one of her specialities during her creative meals class.

NAT'L HONORS REBORN

Mr. Apking addresses the audience and the National Honor students at the installation Feb. 15.

Will Brown receiving his honor from Mrs. Roberts, as Mr. Apking and other honor students look on.

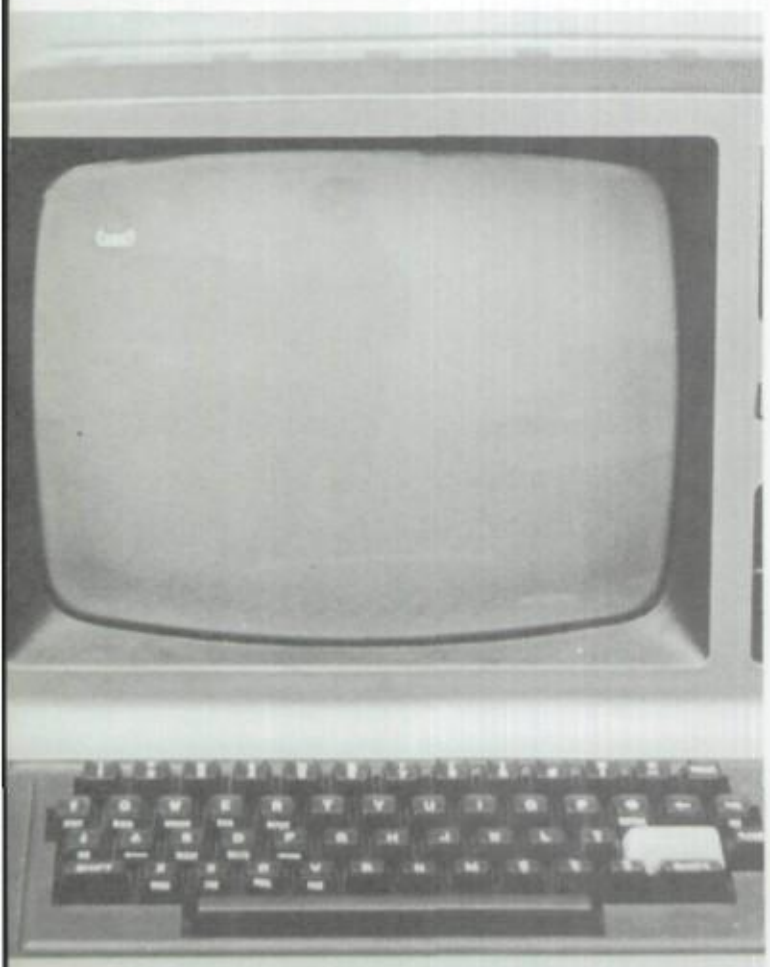


Kathy Matthews, Jeff Uhland, and Maggie Crehan are proud National Honor students.

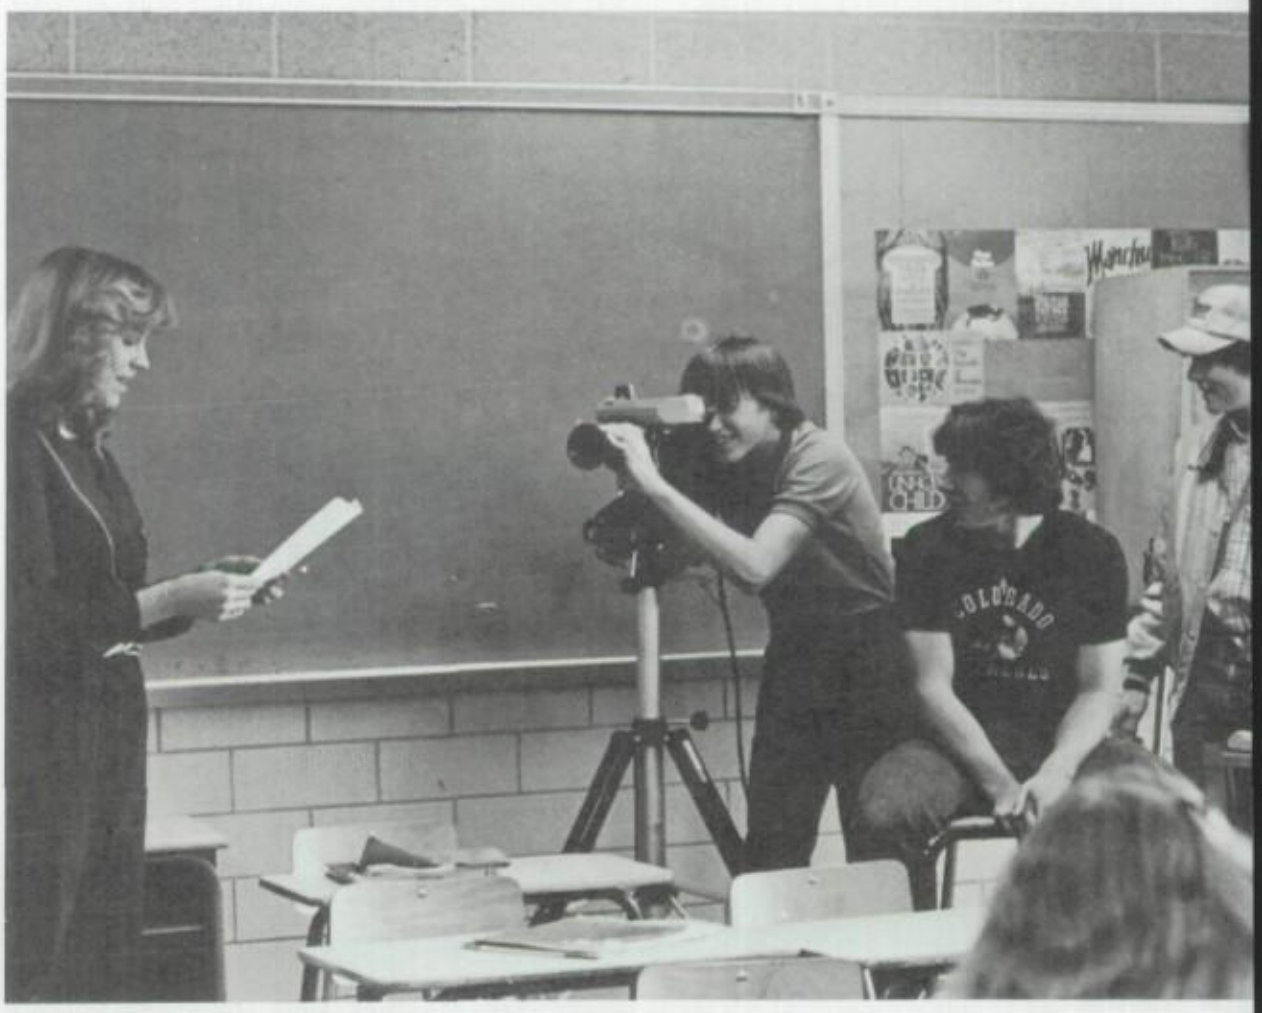
LATEST TECHNOLOGY?

Oh! What did I do now? says Dale Graebner, as Ben Cline works with the computer's foreign language.

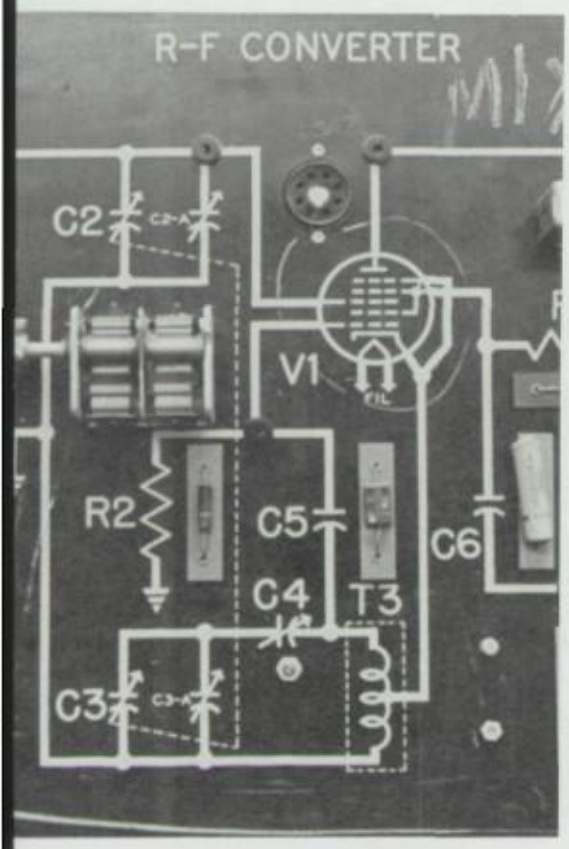
Mark Glasco, Marla Turk, Tom Evert, and Amy Hall explain what model of a space station might accomplish in the future.

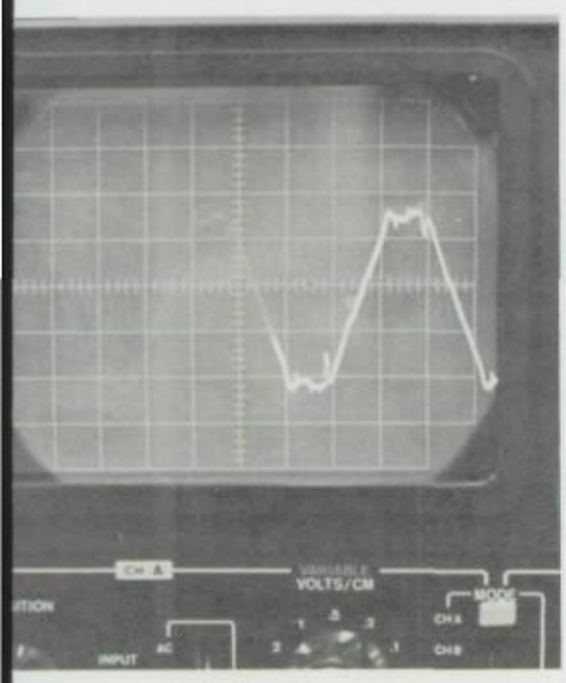


The Radio Shack TRS-80 computer assists many students in learning computer math and science.



Mike Sargent zooms in on Renee Edwards as she practices her lines for the VTR prog "Rome Tonight" in Western Civ.





n Donnelly, Chris Green, and Tom Gib- show their idea of "tomorrow's" space ion.

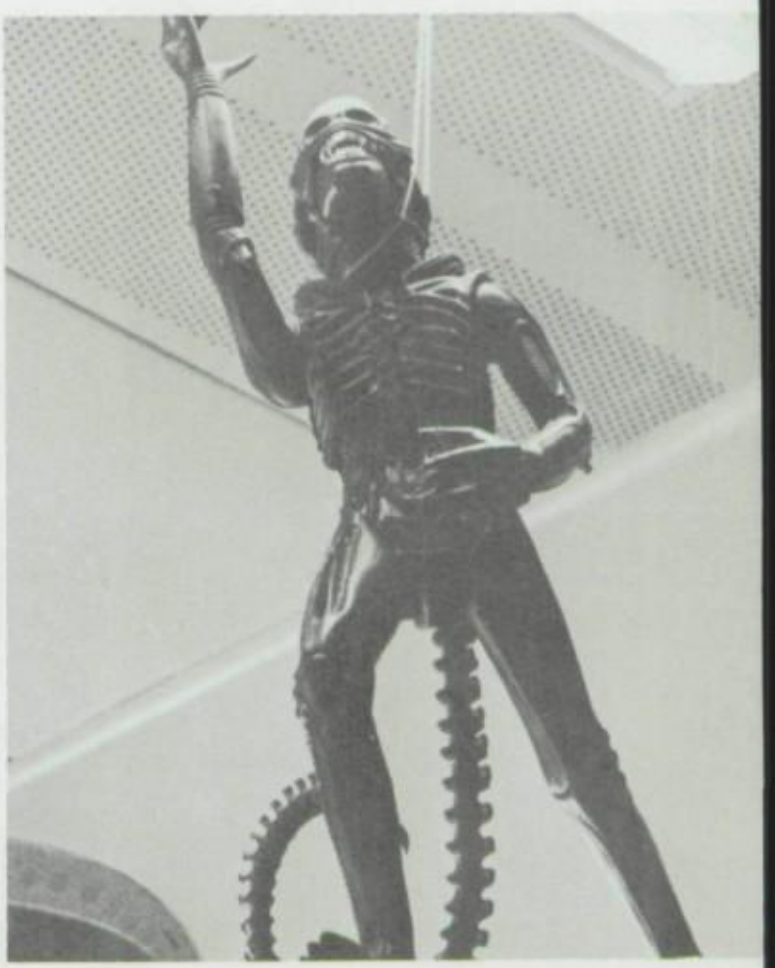
Jud Cary displays his science fiction project. Students also participated in making a science fiction movie in Mrs. Gaspar's class.

I'll get you for this!



Brett Hatler and Pat Connolly begin the first steps in masterminding their electronic robot.

Colleen,

I'm so glad I got to be friends with you this year. I can't believe all you guys are gonna be seniors next year and then leave! Oh no! But Colleen with your looks and your great personality you are gonna go a long ways! We are gonna have to make next lots of fun and we'll have to party lots! Well I hope I see you around this summer! You will have to give me a call (781-0102) if you hear of anything exciting! Well take care and be wild!

Love always,

HOLD ON TIGHT TO YOUR DREAMS

It is now the end of another school year. Each of us has hopefully found something that represents our days at Littleton High School. This 1981-82 Corlionis will help us remember more clearly faces and places of our high school days. Littleton High was more than a school; it is now a past on which to relate. As the places and events begin to fade into memories and mere visions, we see a bright future opening up for each of us, and tomorrow is ours to fill. So, hold on tight to your dreams . . . and never let go.

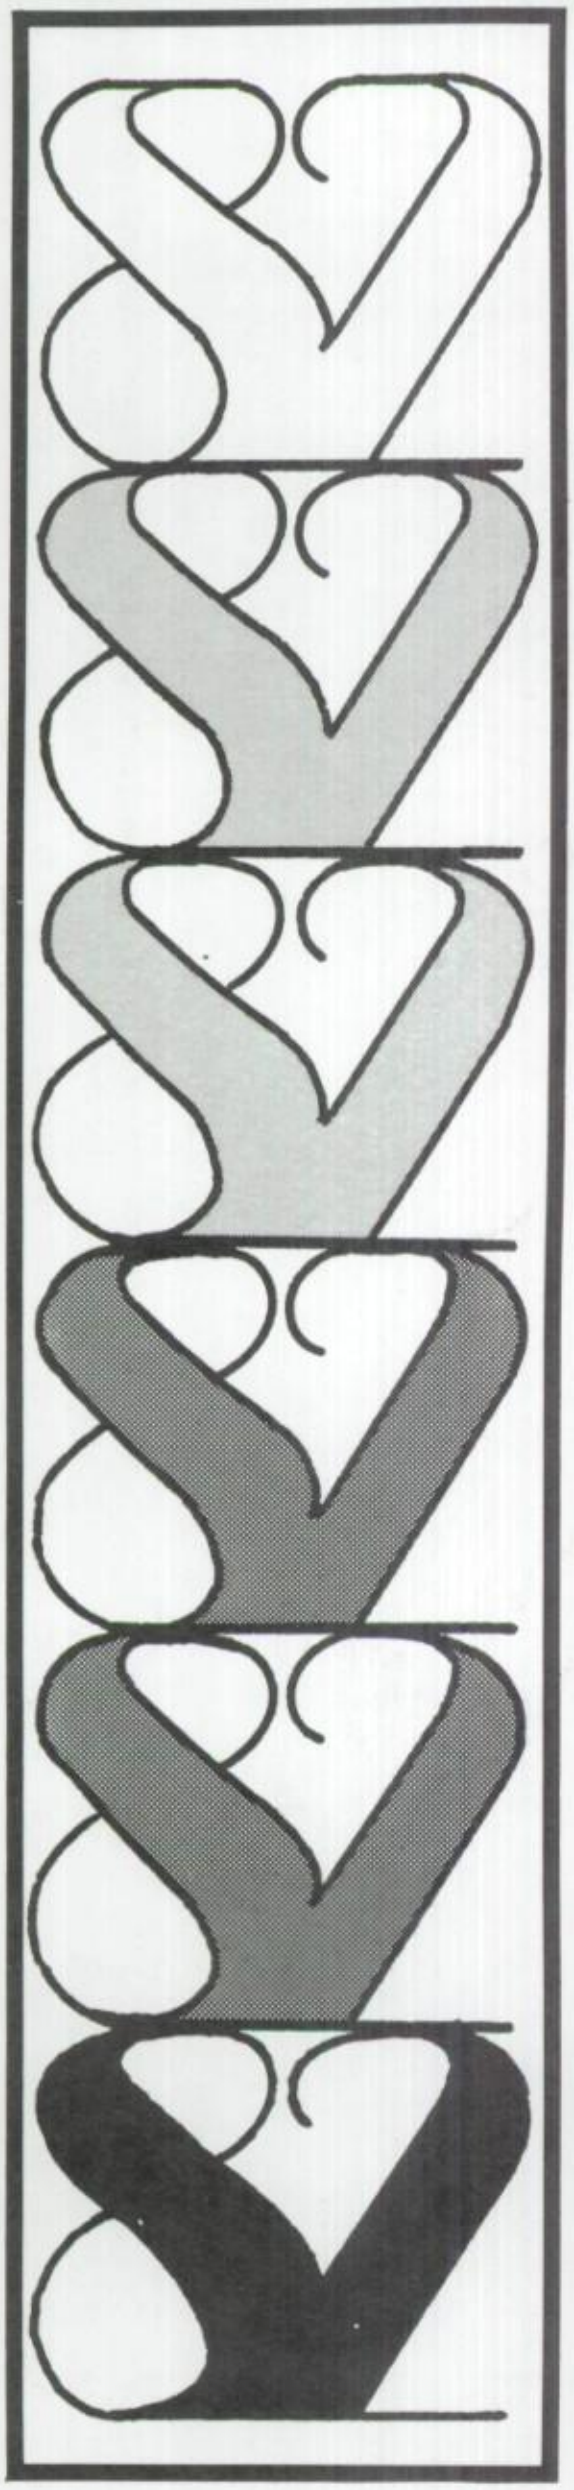
THE WAY WE WERE



Highlighting the Spring of 1980-81 were graduation, prom, Tartuffe, and the Lions' Follies, in addition to regularly scheduled sporting events and fine arts concerts.

Changing the location, the Class of '81 assembled on the artificial turf in the stadium to hear guest speaker Ed Sardella, Channel 9 newscaster speak at graduation.

The Prom "Somewhere Over the Rainbow," was held at the Brown Palace on May 22. Bob Patton and Lucy Langstaff were King and Queen. The After-Prom party at LHS which included swimming, bowling, and movies was more popular than ever.

"Lions' Follies" again displayed students' talents from disco-dancing to a King Tut take-off. A dinner party, "Tartuffe," presented for the first time, showed the skillful execution of the difficult French accent and a haughty Paris atmosphere.

Other events included the Vocal, Patio, Pops, and Jazz Concerts along with the usual athletic contests even though the unpredictable spring weather forced many postponements and some cancellations.

In this Corlionis, the yearbook staff has tried to encompass all the feeling, activities, and achievements during the '81-'82 school year.

While doing our best at fulfilling the responsibliities of incorporating all these events, we had fun and grew together. We experienced all the emotions of a family. Our first argument broke the ice which was over our theme song, The Who and Styx. Some of the losing party, Thalia, Becky, and Jeff were heartbroken. The McDonald food runs satisfied our hunger during our long deadlines. We even ran out of names, calling two of our editors, "Susie 1" and "Susie 2." We also had our familiar questions such as, "Jeff, where's my contacts?"; "Mary, will you spot our pictures?" and "Are you ready for your Quads?"

The typewriters are silent, the darkroom is closed, and calm prevails because the book is here.

Sincerely,
The Editors

ke, Its almost ver now and ip one more year
ft to survive; this year was really great but one of the best parts of it was getting to know you, Kath, and Margaret.
I hope that we will be as fun we have made the rest of this one. I'm going to forget the one night we just sit around. We had so much fun
!! I can also never forget one and you seemed to really this is itself really wrong - this is itself really made me feel much to be friends a whole summer
w friend-

as ever went doing just nothing right when I was care about what was though you may not know it, most better. I wish we had gotten our new little sooner but we still have a and another year to strengthen our ship. You have a super personality and always seem to have a big smile on your face, something I wish I could say for myself. Thanks for putting up with my bad moods.
Here's to a summer full of fun and fun!! You will have to spend a lot of time
at BMS

Colleen

You're been an exceptionally sweet girl to me - you & Jill & Kim to name a few. I'll be glad when the day comes for us to go to Spain - I feel that something crazy & wonderful for all 4 of us will happen I don't know what it is exactly, but it'll be something that we'll never forget

Enjoy yourself this summer & all the summers to come

Love in Jesus' name

Jon Ander

know I ends (can't any close) you and I so will go one through years school and are the best of Buds.
nce Still we are summer Yancy both of not having have not free to not one nights excuse for that one (Do you know which one thought you'd remember is a hint?) not there's a hint :)
so much for being there every-I could've not have. now that needed anyone of... you'll have friend absolutely no confusing?) Amy-have also speaker (is that Confusing and I will what I'm so glad that together. We know! I'm day a week off and have one-day a week a lot and
